DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 2-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to the language in these claims directed to “cam is pressed”, “rotor is pressed”, ect..., it is not clear in the context of the claim exactly how and in what way does such pressing take place.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ohtsuka et al., US Patent 5,923,751. An opening and closing device comprising a stator 10 having a stator cam (10a, 10e); a rotor 13 having a rotor cam (13d, 13c— see figure 8) urged to be in contact with the stator cam by a rotor spring 14, also acting as a reverse-rotor 13 having a reverse-rotor cam 16 urged to be in contact with the stator cam by a reverse rotor spring 18; and, a releaser 19 having a release cam 19b and being movable along an axis; so that when the releaser moves along the axis, the release cam presses against the reverse-rotor cam of the reverse-rotor, to cause said device to open. The stator cam is one of a plurality of stator cams, as claimed.

5. Claims 7-12 are allowed.
